Labor Day Weekend: August 30 - September 1

LAST FEW DAYS FOR EARLY REGISTRATION!

Dear Tim,

We're now just two weeks out from the season's most exciting mountain bike Festival in the intermountain West, and we have lots of news to share with you.

You are probably getting tired of the "toasty" riding that abounds in August if you're not here in Teton Valley "Wydaho"... why not come spend a cool weekend at Grand Targhee and enjoy some of the best mountain biking the West has to offer?

Teton Valley: Mountain Biking's Best Kept Secret

Teton Valley's trails, weather, and hospitality were featured as one of "mountain biking's best kept secrets" in July's Cycle Utah magazine. Cycle Utah is distributed to bike shops and outdoor shops in UT/CO/MT/ID/WY, and is a popular resource for mountain bike riders in the Intermountain West.

Yes, mountain bikers do fly under the radar in Teton Valley, and as a result we get to enjoy uncrowded trails all summer. Then again, those of you who ride some of our 400 miles of trails already knew of our extraordinary resources in the Teton, Big Hole, and Palisades mountain ranges.

And we want YOU to be a part of this year's Wydaho Rendezvous, to help us celebrate and share our trails with visiting and local riders!

Ironman's Journey Film Star to be Featured Guest at Rendezvous

Joe Stone and Kevin May have been working for the last eight months on a film called "AN IRONMAN'S JOURNEY". This documentary follows the story of Joe's quest to become the first known wheelchair-using quadriplegic to complete a full IRONMAN triathlon, scheduled for November 2nd of this year, in Panama City, FL. Joe is also a motivational speaker who captivates audiences with the story of his personal journey starting from a tragic "speed flying" accident and continuing through adapting to his new life as an active, competitive disabled athlete.

An avid outdoor enthusiast and former mountain biker, Joe now thoroughly enjoys off-road hand-cycling – a new form of adaptive mountain biking. So we're especially excited to announce that Joe will be coming to Teton Valley for the Wydaho Rendezvous! He and some of his associates will be on hand at the Ironman's Journey tent at Grand Targhee during Rendezvous weekend to promote awareness of adaptive activities. Come talk to Joe and see some of the incredible adaptive technology he'll have on display, including:

- * off-road hand-cycle
- * freewheel attachment for hiking trails
- * racing wheelchair
- * high performance hand-cycle for road riding
- * sit-skis

Joe's film crew—including Director/Executive Producer Kevin May, will be also on hand to talk about their film and shoot some scenes for the upcoming documentary. Joe will be available to sign IRONMAN'S JOURNEY collectors edition posters, answer any questions, and demo the gear for anyone interested.

One more reason to come to the Wydaho Rendezvous: meet Joe, hear his story, and give one of the adaptive cycles a "test drive"

Trail Riding: Teton Mountain Style

Featured Teton Valley Trail: GTR Lift-Served Down Hill Trails

All the downhill you could want and a soft ride back to the top!

With over 2,200 vertical feet of lift-served downhill there is little you will want for as you descend down classic lines like Buffalo Drop, Sticks and Stones, or Bullwinkle. Run after run and you will venture new lines and fly as high as you dare over those gaps!! Grand Targhee is working tirelessly to make their downhill terrain park the best lift serve in the USA! Come see if you agree.

IMBA Coming to Rendezvous

The International Mountain Bicycling Association be on hand at the festival to share how this vast organization is helping to shape and promote Mountain Biking across the world and in Teton Valley. Local IMBA Chapter, Mountain Bike Teton Valley will host Anna Laxague, IMBA Pacific Northwest Region Director, and work to educate attendees what is happening locally as well across the Nation.

Anna works with IMBA Chapters, Land Managers, local and federal decision makers and industry partners throughout Nor-Cal, OR, WA, ID, HI and AK to assist in getting more trail on the ground, maintaining access, building bike parks, educating users and managers, growing organizational capacity at the local level and much more.

Look for the iconic IMBA Subaru and tent and see how you can get engaged locally or in your home town.
